

Tell Us About You Checklist

Please review this Tell Us About You Checklist before going to your encores today. This will ensure that we as your educators are making informed decisions about your day to day classroom style.

Morning Routines	Yes	No	Maybe
Do you eat breakfast in the morning?
Would you like a greeting, such as a hug, high five, or fist bump?
I prefer light music playing in the classroom.
I would like to be able to talk to my friends in the morning.
Do you wish to have information on the board that includes schedule, supplies needed, date, and responsibilities for the day?

Things I like to do	Yes	No	Maybe
I like being active. Playing sports, running outside at recess, dancing, and any type of movement makes me happy.
I like reading. The library is my favorite place to be so I can read books, short stories, poetry, and graphic novels.
I like math. Solving a problem step by step, using my multiplication skills, and iXL are my strengths.

How I like to learn	Yes	No	Maybe
I prefer to work alone. I do not like to explain myself or my thinking.
I prefer to work in groups. Collaborating and sharing ideas with others come easily for me.
I am a visual learner. I need pictures, graphics, and color in my notes.
I learn by doing. Hands-on math activities, science labs, and moving my body while learning allow me to be successful.
I am an auditory learner. When I hear verbal directions, have discussions, or repeat information to friends I learn the best!
I learn by reading & writing. I take pride in my note taking, use dictionaries and look through the text books.
